

The unsolicited telephone calls are making my husband and me irate. Please don't change the no-call law. I don't want calls from banks, businesses, charities, or any other total strangers trying to sell something or cheat us out of our money.